THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR VIROLOGY

Invites you to attend the 37th Annual ASV Meeting on July 14-18, 2018 in College Park, Maryland. Hosted by the University of Maryland, College Park, the ASV 2018 scientific program will include plenary symposia, state-of-the-art lectures, satellite symposia, concurrent workshops, poster sessions, exhibits, and special events. The call-for-abstracts will be announced in November 2017. The abstract deadline is February 1, 2018. See the ASV 2018 web site for further information.

MEETING FACILITIES

ASV 2018 will be held on the beautiful and vibrant University of Maryland campus conveniently located less than five miles from Washington D.C., the nation's capital. All scientific symposia, workshops, poster sessions, registration, exhibits, and conference dining will take place across premier locations, including the Adele H. Stamp Student Union Center for Campus Life, which will act as the conference's main center, and the new Edward St. John Learning and Teaching Center. Morning plenary symposia will be held in the Dekelboum Concert Hall in the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center, one of the region's finest concert venues. All workshops, poster sessions, exhibits and evening social events are conveniently located within steps of each other.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Blocks of rooms have been reserved in a variety of hotels near the campus in College Park, several of which are within walking distance of conference events (see ASV 2018 web site for more details). On-campus resident hall lodging with 24 hour hospitality desk service is also available. On-campus housing is limited and will be offered on a first-come, first-serve basis. Thus, please make your lodging reservations early.

WASHINGTON D.C.

Located less than five miles from campus, conference attendees will have convenient access to our nation's capital, filled with monuments, museums, eateries, theaters, and more. For those without a vehicle, the University of Maryland offers a free shuttle bus from the campus to the local Metro train station one mile away for easy access to all parts of the city. More information about sights and traveling into the city can be obtained from our 24 hour residence hall desk staff or Stamp's Information Desk staff during the conference.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND, COLLEGE PARK

Founded in 1856 as the Maryland Agricultural College, the University of Maryland is the state's flagship and land-grant university. As a member of the Association of American Universities (AAU) and the Big Ten Conference, Maryland is consistently recognized as one of the nation's preeminent public research universities. The university is home to more than 37,000 students, 10,000 faculty and staff, and 300 academic programs across 13 schools and colleges. Our students are innovators, entrepreneurs, creators and doers. Our faculty includes three Nobel laureates, three Pulitzer Prize winners, 52 members of the national academies, and scores of Fulbright scholars, making Maryland a global leader in research, entrepreneurship and innovation.

TRANSPORTATION

Three international airports (Thurgood Marshall International Airport, Ronald Reagan National Airport, and Dulles International Airport) are located within a 30-45 minute drive of campus. Inexpensive, non-stop and direct flights are available from most major USA and foreign cities. Metro and Shuttle bus service connects all airports to College Park. Amtrak Northeast Corridor New Carrollton Station is also conveniently located 5 miles away and is accessible by Metro.
